March 26, 1925.

Judge A. A. Evans,
Asst. Attorney General,
Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Cousin;

I will try and not be so formal in addressing my letter as I was before, perhaps I was too much so yet it would be natural to be this way not having known you personally or know of you until a few months ago.

On yesterday I visited Atlanta and had the pleasure of calling on Mrs. Minnie R. Wiley at 75 Hunt St., Atlanta, who was the adopted grandaughter of Uncle William Vines Collier and his wife. We had a very interesting conversation, in fact it was hard for me to get away. I had known of Mrs. Wiley's husband and the Wiley Candy Co. since I was a boy but didn't think that they were at all connected with our family. She is a very charming woman and an unusual conversationalist, it makes one feel better to have been in her company for a short time. She spoke very highly of you and requested me to send you her love and best wishes.

She gave me the address of Cousin Sally Evans of whom I remember having heard my Father speak of coming to his home about the time I was born or shortly thereafter. At that time we had a Cousin to come out from Texas by the name of Anna Minafee. Do you know what became of her or her family? I have another Cousin living at Cuthbert Ga., Miss Mary Lou Sharman, the daughter of Aunt Edith Louise Sharman. She never married and is now very old, possibly 80. I am today writing Cousin Sallie, Mrs. R.H. Glenn at Seale, Ala.

Some day I hope to have you visit us and possibly some time I will be in Montgomery and will come in to see you. I have sold a lot of merchandise in Montgomery to various firms, Steiner-Lobman & Co. and three or four others that I can't recall just at this writing.

With most sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,

JCC:C